1. Visit us online anytime at library.vcu.edu.
2. Hours vary at each campus library. Click "Hours" for a full listing of hours including exceptions to regular hours.
3. Find and reserve a study room for groups of 2 or more.
4. Ask Us: find all the ways to ask library staff for assistance including chat, text, call, email, or one-on-one.
5. Click when you see the green bubble to open a chat window with a library staff member.
6. Use this box to search for books, articles, journal titles, DVDs, CDs, and more.
7. Access to all databases. (Databases are a way to search for articles and other content)
8. Research Guides point to the best resources for your subject or class. Also available are other helpful guides to learn more about a variety of topics.
10. Discover upcoming library events, workshops and lectures.